Itinerary

2022-Jagst-Herbst-A-A

We are very much looking forward to the continuation of our special Tango RETREAT with Amanda & Adrian Costa. For this we have chosen the Jagstmühle again, a real gem. Our Tango Hotel is centrally accessible from many places in Germany without a long journey, as well as in the heart of the beautiful Jagst Valley.

Let's enjoy an intense tango vacation. "Tango RETREAT" - that's what we call these days in autumn when we want to devote ourselves intensively to tango and its roots. The motto this year is under the theme: "Homage to Pugliese".

Amanda & Adrian Costa teach the intensive courses for advanced and experienced dancers. Anyone who already knows the two of them from our tango trips knows the respect, respect and love with which they teach tango and how they interpret Pugliese.

Let us experience extremely professional tango lessons in the unique ambience of our beautiful hotel: during the day in the light-flooded hall on 100 square meters of the best parquet floor, as well as in our atmospheric milongas in the evening. Lectures on musicality and practices complement these tango days, which let us discover Pugliese.

Here, in the Hohenlohe gourmet region in Baden-Württemberg, you can find many gems in castles, churches and picturesque towns. In the valleys and forests of the Jagsttal you can find peace and relaxation.

The Jagstmühle was converted into a cozy country inn many years ago and in recent years another modern garden house with luxurious guest rooms has been added. Our hotel is secluded and very quiet on the Jagst, a tranquil little river. Here in the Jagsttal there are countless hiking trails or you can discover the region by bike on the Kocher-Jagst cycle path, which is not called the "Hohenlohe connoisseur region" for nothing. Not far from the Jagstmühle we find many sights along the romantic road. Picturesque towns such as Schwäbisch Hall and magnificent castles such as Weikersheim Castle can be visited.

Or you can just relax with "doing nothing" next to the tango, which is playing a big role these days.

A very well-kept country hotel with a lot of flair awaits us in the cozy rooms, on the garden terrace and in the inner courtyard of the half-timbered ensemble.

Away from the hustle and bustle, you can indulge your culinary delights with excellent slow-food cuisine. We start the day with a delicious breakfast from the buffet and the best ingredients from the region.

At dinner, culinary enjoyment is guaranteed before our milonga starts. The Jagstmühle kitchen team is a member of "Slow-Food" and so the chefs concentrate on their good craft, as well as old recipes and traditions. It goes without saying that the products come carefully selected from the region. The vegetarian dishes are also prepared creatively and of high quality. Enjoyment & quality at a high level! Our dance hall is located in the main building and is bright and flooded with light. It is 100 square meters and has a beautiful parquet floor and floor-to-ceiling windows with a view of the green garden.

There are two room categories to choose from:

The standard rooms "Mühle" are comfortably furnished in a country house style and are located in the three-story main building. (No elevator).

The deluxe "garden" rooms are spacious, bright, and very high quality and comfortably furnished. You are either in the newly built guest house or in the Jagsthütte, approx. 70 mtr. away from the main house with a view of the garden in a quiet location. The deluxe rooms have a balcony or terrace and a spacious bathroom.

Tango

Amanda and Adrian Costa:

With Amanda and Adrian the highest tango-Argentino enjoyment is inevitable. The two dance extremely harmoniously to the music and very elegantly. Rhythm and clarity in dance are particularly important to them. It is difficult to escape the fascination of their aesthetics. They convey "Tango de Salón" in its purest form: clearly structured, they show in their lessons how the dancers can achieve more presence and elegance in their dance through good walking technique, an intimate hug and through rhythmic clarity. With Amanda and Adrian there is no "figure acrobatics", but smart step games that result from attentive listening to the music and its interpretation. Her credo: "Tango is not a figure, Tango is a feeling". Amanda and Adrian teach in English.

From Tuesday to Saturday, a total of 12 hours of lessons with active prácticas and lectures for advanced dancers are included. There are two course groups, the grouping is done by Amanda & Adrian. The prácticas and lectures are held together for both groups. The lessons and the milongas take place in the beautiful hall with parquet floor.

During this trip, the focus of her teaching is on the subject of "Homage to Pugliese". The basic requirement is good basic work. We are working on this just as intensively as we are on elegant step combinations and the interpretation of Pugliese.
