Itinerary

2023-Adrian-Pugliese

We are very much looking forward to the continuation of our special Tango RETREAT with Amanda & Adrian Costa. For this we have chosen the Jagstmühle again, a real gem. Our Tango Hotel is centrally accessible from many places in Germany without a long journey, as well as in the heart of the beautiful Jagst Valley.

Let's enjoy an intense tango vacation. "Tango RETREAT" - that's what we call these days in autumn when we want to devote ourselves intensively to tango and its roots. The motto this year is under the theme: "Homage to Pugliese".

Amanda & Adrian Costa teach the intensive courses for advanced and experienced dancers. Anyone who already knows the two of them from our tango trips knows the respect, respect and love with which they teach tango and how they interpret Pugliese.

Let us experience extremely professional tango lessons in the unique ambience of our beautiful hotel: during the day in the light-flooded hall on 100 square meters of the best parquet floor, as well as in our atmospheric milongas in the evening. Lectures on musicality and practices complement these tango days, which let us discover Pugliese.

Here, in the Hohenlohe gourmet region in Baden-Württemberg, you can find many gems in castles, churches and picturesque towns. In the valleys and forests of the Jagsttal you can find peace and relaxation.

The Jagstmühle was converted into a cozy country inn many years ago and in recent years another modern garden house with luxurious guest rooms has been added. Our hotel is secluded and very quiet on the Jagst, a tranquil little river. Here in the Jagsttal there are countless hiking trails or you can discover the region by bike on the Kocher-Jagst cycle path, which is not called the "Hohenlohe connoisseur region" for nothing. Not far from the Jagstmühle we find many sights along the romantic road.

Picturesque towns such as Schwäbisch Hall and magnificent castles such as Weikersheim Castle can be visited.

Or you can just relax with "doing nothing" next to the tango, which is playing a big role these days.

The Jagst mill was rebuilt many years ago into a cozy country inn and extended by another modern garden house with luxurious guest rooms. Our hotel is secluded and very quietly located on the Jagst, a tranquil little river. Here, in the connoisseur region of Hohenlohe in Baden-Württemberg, many gems can be found in the castles, churches and small towns. Around the Jagst mill there is the possibility for relaxing winter walks along the Jagst. Not far from the Jagst mill we can find many places of interest. Picturesque little towns like Rothenburg ob der Tauber or Schwäbisch Hall with its museums, as well as magnificent castles like Weikersheim Castle can be visited. Or you can just relax with "doing nothing" next to the tango...

We expect a cultivated country hotel with a lot of flair in the comfortable rooms of the mill and in the guest house.

Our dance hall is located in the main house and is bright and flooded with light. It is 100 square meters in size and has a beautiful parquet floor, as well as floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the garden.

We start the day with a delicious breakfast from the buffet and the best ingredients from the region. In the evening, a traditional, regional 3-course menu awaits us. At the Jagst mill, we make sure that the food comes from the region and it is cooked with care and prudence: high regional quality instead of showmanship.

If desired, a vegetarian option can also be chosen.

NEW: From 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. there will be a "snack" for all participants with salty & sweet snacks, fruit & cake, as well as coffee, tea & soft drinks. This is also included in the travel price, as is the minibar, which is refilled daily.

The standard rooms "Mühle" are comfortably furnished in country house style and are located in the three-story main house (no elevator).

The deluxe rooms "Garden" are spacious, as well as bright and very high quality and cozy furnishings. They are located either in the guest house or in the Jagsthütte, about 70 meters from the main house with a view of the garden in a quiet location. The Deluxe rooms have a balcony or terrace and a spacious bathroom.

Unlike our tango hotels in Styria and Ötztal, there is no wellness area/sauna at Jagst mill, but you will find peace & quiet in nature. In addition, we are spoiled with a high-quality slow food cuisine. Who appreciates this, will feel completely comfortable in the Jagstmühle.

Arrival and departure:

You should arrive on Sunday, October 1st, 2023 by 5:30 p.m.

After dinner there is a first milonga. The courses start the next day.

On Saturday, October 7th, 2023, the return journey can take place after breakfast.

The rooms should be vacated by around 10:30 am.

Additional days can be requested through Bailando Reisen.

Tango

Amanda and Adrian Costa:

With Amanda and Adrian the highest tango-Argentino enjoyment is inevitable. The two dance extremely harmoniously to the music and very elegantly. Rhythm and clarity in dance are particularly important to them. It is difficult to escape the fascination of their aesthetics. They convey "Tango de Salón" in its purest form: clearly structured, they show in their lessons how the dancers can achieve more presence and elegance in their dance through good walking technique, an intimate hug and through rhythmic clarity. With Amanda and Adrian there is no "figure acrobatics", but smart step games that result from attentive listening to the music and its interpretation. Her credo: "Tango is not a figure, Tango is a feeling". Amanda and Adrian teach in English.

From Tuesday to Saturday, a total of 12 hours of lessons with active prácticas and lectures for advanced dancers are included. There are two course groups, the grouping is done by Amanda & Adrian. The prácticas and lectures are held together for both groups. The lessons and the milongas take place in the beautiful hall with parquet floor.

During this trip, the focus of her teaching is on the subject of "Homage to Pugliese". The basic requirement is good basic work. We are working on this just as intensively as we are on elegant step combinations and the interpretation of Pugliese.
